Don't Complain Later

Albertans have been doing lots of talking about taxes lately, despite the fact few of us have any real idea of actually how much taxes contribute to our cost of living.

The cost of what we buy always includes a lot of taxation and it is going to include a lot more taxation if the present plan is adopted of amending the Constitution so that the provincial governments can levy a hidden sales tax of up to three per cent.

This is supposed to be for the purpose of financing old age pensions, to be paid by the Provinces to those in need, up to the age of seventy. Of course, no one reminds the public that the Province of Quebec has said that since it now levies various Sales Taxes, it would not use this plan, or that the Province of Nova Scotia says that it does not need this 3 per cent, and that the Provinces of British Columbia and New Brunswick say that 3 per cent would not be enough, or that the Province of Alberta, with its enormous revenues at present, does not require this additional source.

Anyway, if this amendment goes through, any time the provincial government decides it wants more money it will be able to raise the price of goods by three per cent.

All that will be done will be to fix things so that Albertans will pay more taxes to the extent of 3 per cent of all the money which they spend, and will be able to forget that they are doing this because the tax will not show on their invoices or sales slips.

When this tax goes into effect, up goes the cost of living.

If you or any other Albertan have any intention of protesting against the increase in the cost of living which this tax will bring, now is the time to complain.

Farm Labor Scarcity

There is a growing scarcity of farm labor in Alberta mainly due to the higher wages and shorter hours for city workers, and the provision of workmen's compensation, medical aid, pension payments and unemployment insurance. Farm workers do not qualify for such benefits.

O. S. Longman, provincial deputy minister of agriculture, says as a consequence of the tight farm labor situation farmers are going in for more wheat production and the production of grass-fed cattle which require a minimum amount of labor and provide maximum returns. There is a downward trend in dairying, hog production and poultry production on Alberta farms.

Mr. Longman mentioned that in 1949 city workers in Alberta received $7,600,000 from unemployment insurance and the workmen's compensation board.

The Home and School

Provincial gathering of the Alberta Federation of Home and School Associations in Edmonton this week raises an opportunity to ask parents of school children whether they know the teachers of their children and the officials that operate our schools.

It might be worthwhile to mention the importance of the Home and School Association, an organization which is closely identified with the progress of education here. This organization can be a potent force in building public support for Alberta education.

We have no hesitation in advising parents of pupils attending the public schools to join the HSA, to attend its meetings and to co-operate with other parents in keeping informed about our school system and in persuading the public to give liberal financial support to build the best possible school system.

Note and Comment

It often happens that men who talk too much, think too little.

What has happened to the proposed Trans-Canada highway? No project is more urgently needed than this for the defence of the nation.

If Conscription Comes

(From Toronto Daily Star)

Reassuring statements on the subject of military conscription have been made by two members of the federal government since the current session of parliament began. Early in the session Prime Minister St. Laurent asserted that compulsory military service will be considered "strictly on its merits" as a means of furthering national preparedness, and not on any racial or religious basis. A few days ago Milton Gregg, V.C., minister of labor, stated that he would never be a party to legislation that created two classes of service men, one of them popularly (or unpopularly) known as "zombies" in the last war.

Mr. Gregg made it clear that his pronouncement was a personal one and as such does not commit the government. Though Mr. Gregg occupies the labor portfolio, he has a splendid record of service in both world wars and it can be taken for granted that his advice on general recruiting policies carries considerable weight in the cabinet. It is perhaps unlikely that, at this critical time he would make any public statement on military matters which would be out of line with government thinking and intentions. It may be thought, therefore, that if conscription becomes necessary in Canada it will be invoked without any limitations as to the area in which draftees may be required to serve.

No political party except the small Social Credit group has taken the stand that compulsory military service is advisable now and the Social Crediters advocated it only for the reserve forces. Their motion was voted down by 146-15 in parliament. Outside the Social Credit ranks it won the support of only four Progressive Conservative members and one Independent. Aside from the near-unanimity on the question, the most noteworthy feature of the debate was the lack of acrimonious exchanges and accusations which the subject would certainly have evoked only a few years ago.

At the outset of World War II, the Mackenzie King government felt it necessary in the interests of national unity in the conflict to give its assurance that conscription would not be imposed. As the war picture darkened, a plebiscite was held on the question, the result releasing the government from its "no conscription" pledge. Compulsory service for home defence was inaugurated. When, in 1944, draftees were sent overseas as infantry reinforcements, a cabinet crisis was precipitated and it was freely predicted that the government had lost any chance of ever carrying Quebec province again. Instead, the Liberals won Quebec by big margins in the next two general elections.

The evidence is mounting that conscription is no longer a serious disruptive issue. This augurs well for a greater degree of national unity than ever before in meeting the heavy tasks imposed by menacing world conditions. There is every reason to hope that the ideal of a truly united Canada, to which Laurier and King dedicated their lives, may be realized during the term of the administration headed by their political heir, Louis St. Laurent.

Do We Need More Rain?

Dr. Irving Langmuir of the General Electric Research Laboratories in Schenectady, New York, is convinced that man can create artificial weather.

Dr. Langmuir has been successful in producing rain on many occasions. Best results were obtained in a test in New Mexico in the summer of 1949. He said, "We started at 5:30 a.m., using a smoke generator with burnt charcoal pellets, impregnated with silver iodide. At 10:10 a.m. the first flash of lightning appeared. By the end of the day we had worked 13 hours, used $13.40 of the compound and produced 320 billion gallons of rain."

The basic idea in Dr. Langmuir's rain making is to select clouds that are "super cooled" to below zero temperatures, and that also contain appreciable amounts of water in the form of droplets too tiny to freeze. If enough of these droplets merge at one place they freeze solid and fall to earth as rain or snow, depending on weather conditions.

To produce this effect, particles of dry ice and silver iodide are used. The particles serve as "seed" to which water droplets will attach themselves until enough gather to form ice crystals. Theoretically the crystals will "trigger" an atmospheric chain reaction that will produce legions of other crystals.

HANDS ACROSS THE BORDER

Dear Sir—A lot of U.S. people are saying they would be sorry if there should be any worsening of Canada-U.S. relations as a result of a recent speech by our Mike Pearson. The U.S. shouldn't worry about anything like that; practically all of us are with the U.S.A. 100 per cent. No other two nations could be as alike as we are. We dress alike, talk alike, hear the same radio programs, see the same movies, and visit one another by the millions. It just makes me laugh when some official decides to worry about our being anything but friends. Why, that U.S.-Canada border is the most useless thing in the world and always will be.

IGNORANCE MISLEADING

Dear Sir—In a recent Voice letter M.L.S. of Killam explained to Veterans who were taking place under Liberal administrations but pleads ignorance to the facts. Very much against their will the present war was forced on a Labor government and the last two wars were forced on Conservative governments, and Canada like a red-blooded son of the Motherland came to her assistance, so M.L.S. will have to find another solution as we cannot kick out the British government.

Dear Sir—That reader who wrote in and said the Catholic church doesn't stand for religious freedom doesn't know what he is talking about. If he doesn't like the Catholic religion let him keep it to himself. Nobody says he has to be a Catholic. Belong to any religious organization you want—that's religious freedom!

Drumheller. A CATHOLIC.

COST OF LIVING

Dear Sir—Ottawa federal ministers are saying food prices rose only half a point or so in March. Yet some taxes were doubled in the federal budget and, of course, costs will be passed on to the consumer. And what's happened to the living costs in April? If they haven't risen at least four points I'll eat my shirt!

KING JAMES VERSION

Dear Sir—Does not Mrs. M. Watson of Morrin, in her reply to F. J. McNeely's remarks stated that the King James version of the Bible was the only perfect Bible, know that the King James version is far from perfect?

The version varies greatly from the original Greek, which, alone can be regarded as a perfect Bible, if any.

The King James version was translated by a group of men under threat of losing of their lives if they made any translations which would conflict with the Church of England teachings.

Alberta Legion Resolutions Call For Conscription, Pensions, Soldier Benefits

Increases in war veterans' pensions, a compulsory scheme of military training, and benefits to Special Force soldiers similar to veterans of World War II, are among recommendations to be considered by Alberta branches of the Canadian Legion at the next provincial convention.

A resolution passed by the Montgomery Legion branch of Edmonton calls upon the Dept. of Veterans Affairs and the Canadian Pension Commission to investigate treatment of mental patients.

Delegates to the provincial convention will also consider a resolution that Special Force Soldiers should receive clothing allowance and thirty days leave with pay on discharge, and be entitled to all other benefits afforded to veterans of World War II on discharge from the forces.

Due to the rising cost of living, which is increasing at an "alarming" rate, war veteran allowances should receive a boost equal to the "persistent" rise, according to another resolution.

The provincial convention which will consider these and other resolutions will be held in Lethbridge in June.

A resolution dealing with the government's defence policy will ask for compulsory military training, along with other schemes to strengthen the defence of Canada.

Just Because Girls 'Cute' They Shouldn't Be On Stage Dancing Teacher Warns

CALGARY. — (BUP) — Just because little girls look "cute" in fluffy dancing costumes doesn't mean they should be on the stage, according to a Canadian dancing teacher who ought to know.

Gweneth Lloyd, one of the founders of the Winnipeg ballet, gave parents here some tips on what their attitude should be toward the dancing lessons of their young offsprings.

"Parents who send their little Susie to dancing school just to see her strutting her stuff in a dance recital have the wrong idea about dancing," she said. "Dancing should be studied for its own sake and for its educational value, and not necessarily for performance."

Miss Lloyd remarked that in 15 years of teaching in Canada, she had never held a recital.

She described dancing as important for a child's education because it develops self-confidence, rhythm and musical appreciation.

The study of different types of dances is followed naturally by geography and other studies and makes learning fascinating and easier, she said.

As for putting small children on the stage, Miss Lloyd said the theatre is for the best only and the public would never learn to appreciate good dancing "as long as inadequately trained performers are allowed to play."

Miss Lloyd commented: "There

OIL MAKES A COUNTRY STRONG

"SURE...I WAS HERE WHEN IT STARTED!"

You can bet Jimmie was on hand when the first Imperial drilling crew turned up at the farm gate. And he's been an untiring fence post superintendent ever since. But that's not all—in his short lifetime he's lived enough years to see the growth of a new major industry.

Less than five years ago Canada's oil producing industry was far from robust. Our oil fields were dwindling and produced only one barrel in every 10 we used.

Today only eight countries in the world are known to have larger oil reserves than Canada. And production this year is expected to meet about one-third of our needs.

Every barrel of this "home grown" crude lessens our dependence on other countries and brings us a step closer to self-sufficiency in oil. With oil increasingly important to our daily life in peace or war, any improvement in security of supply means new security for Jimmie and for all of us.

Canada's newest major industry gives promise of becoming one of her greatest.

STUDY OF TINY SHREW BRANDS IT
AS ONE OF MOST FIERCE ANIMALS

No bigger than a mouse but still one of nature's most ferocious creatures, the shrew worries only about finding its next victims.

The shrew just looks for something to curb its terrific appetite.
 The tiny creature, scarcely longer than its scientific name—microsorex hoyi, eats from one to three times its own weight every day.

The shrew's reputation for fast living would make a human routine look like a slow motion newsreel of a Mexican siesta. If the little glutton manages to keep its appetite quelled, it may live to be 12 or 14 months old, the conservation authorities said.

The smallest of mammals, the shrew could be mistaken for a midge, mouse or in the larger, short tailed variety, for a runt.

COUSIN TO MOLE

A shrew lives above ground in leaf mould.

Although Dr. Kinney hasn't got around to shrews, a naturalist calls them "promiscuous".

"Their only moral necessity seems to be the most rapid increase possible," he said.

At least three litters are born a year, each containing from four to seven naked, blind and tooth-less babies.

The shrew's metabolic rate is 183 compared to man's study 78.
 Its chief foods are insects, earthworms, salamanders and tiny rodents.

Nature has provided the hungry creature with a quick knock-out drop for its victims in the form of a poison gland at the base of the front teeth. A single shrew is thus equipped with enough poison to slay 200 mice. Larger shrews are said to be capable of eating a thousand mice a year.

The terrible disposition of the shrew no doubt accounts for the term "shrewish", sometimes applied to the human female.

Men who know shrews best say when you place several together—of the same sex they immediately start licking their chops to prepare for a banquet at the other's expense.

A lack of shrew food doubtless would cause a genocide among the shrew clan.

Farmers hope that will never happen, for to them the shrews are good news. They never damage crops but help to rid field and woodland of many injurious insects and rodents.

In Hollywood

PAT CLARY

HOLLYWOOD—Chris Pin Martin, one of Hollywood's veteran character actors, has worked continuously for 40 years. He said it is because he has 20 dependents praying continuously.

Mr. Martin and his wife work the dependents don't eat. That keeps his family constantly on their knees.

"I came to Hollywood in 1911 and I have worked steadily since," Martin said. "My family prays most earnestly for the saints for my economic welfare."

"So after I finish each picture,
 I throw a big party for 400 or 500 of my relatives and friends. I go broke, but I am sure that I will soon get another part and have more money."

HAD MEAT RATION

Martin celebrated his 40th anniversary in films while he was working in support of Josephine Hull and Howard Duff in Universal-International's "Fine Day." It was the old Universal studio which first brought Martin to Hollywood from Arizona with other Yagui Indians to work in westerns for $5 a day and a meat ration.

Martin led California's last Indian uprising when he discovered the meat ration was horse meat.

A year after he started his movie career, Martin married and he and his wife have four children, all of them married and living with the Martins in their 14-room house, one of Los Angeles' oldest residences. Nine grandchildren, his grandmother and various permanent house guests also make his home there.

Sugar beets grown in Southern Ontario in 1950 brought a cash return of more than three million dollars to the farmer-growers.

JEAN SIMMONS, recently the bride of Stewart Granger, joined her husband on "location" during filming of "Soldiers Three", in which Granger is starred. There's a possibility the happy couple will be co-starred in the not too distant future.

The LIGHTER SIDE

Fair Enough

"I've got a rather distasteful job," remarked the British generalist. "A woman employed me to look up her family tree, and I've got to inform her that one of her relatives was electrocuted for murder in America."

"I shouldn't worry about that," replied his friend. "Just write that the man occupied the chair of applied electricity at one of America's public institutions."

Gentle Hint

Peter was playing at Jimmy Brown's house. When it was time to go home it started to rain. Mrs. Brown offered to lend him Jimmy's raincoat.

"Don't take so much trouble, Mrs. Brown," said Peter, politely. "I'm sure your mother would do as much for Jimmy," she replied.

"My mother would do more," said Peter. "She'd ask Jimmy to stay for supper."

Nobody

The amateur burglar, stumbling into the bedroom, knocked over a chair with a crash, awakening the nervous householder, who asked:

"Who's there?"

"Nobody," said the intruder softly.

"Who else?" pursued the alarmed gentleman.

"Only the cat. You forgot to put it out."

It Worked

"I've decided on a name for baby," said the young mother. "I shall call her Nanette."

Her husband thought it was an awful name to give a girl, but being a wise and tactful fellow, he did not object.

"Splendid," he said, cheerfully. "The first girl I ever loved was called Nanette, and the name will revive pleasant memories!"

There was a brief silence, then: "We'll call her Mary, after my mother," said the young wife firmly.

Napoleon of Finance

Will — "There goes that man Wombat. He's a financial wizard."

Bill — "How come? He don't look it."

Will — "He got a $10.14 payment on his account in a closed bank three months ago, and his wife hasn't found it out yet."

LETTER TO LOUISA

Wife Wants Privilege Of Choosing Own Clothes

Dear Louisa—My husband is very critical of my clothes. Before I buy a hat or dress I have to bring them home for his approval, or he doesn't like it one bit.

Some of the things he likes I can't abide, so I go around wearing unbecoming clothes just to please him.

Don't you think I should have the privilege of choosing my own clothes?

WIFE

Answer:

I think every woman and every man should have the right to choose her or his clothes and enjoy wearing what they like. Most of us like to wear clothes that our better halves like, but if it comes to the place where we have to wear something we dislike or something he doesn't care for, then I feel sure that the choice should lie with the person wearing the clothes.

This is a funny old world and the male population seems to be divided up into just two parts — those who pay no attention to their wives' clothes and those who pay too much attention to them. The wives of each set complain, so I suppose it is about six of one and half a dozen of the other.

Try to strike a happy medium with your clothes and get things that you both like.

LOUISA.

Dear Louisa—I have a wife who talks too much. She chatters incessantly and never says anything of importance. All the time I am reading or listening to the radio, she is asking questions or shouting some gossip at me.

What can I do to slow her down without hurting her feelings?

"MERE MAN."

Answer:

You probably see lots of people during the day and by the time night comes, you have heard all the news and exchanged views with half a dozen people.

Your wife, on the other hand, has been busy at home all day with no one to talk with and only the babies for company. Consequently, by the time you come in she is all set for a nice chatty evening, while all you are looking for is peace and rest for a worried mind.

The best solution to such a problem, I think, is for you to make it a plan to devote part of the evening to her and claim a part for yourself. Don't grab the paper or turn on the radio the minute you get in the house. Tell her the news and listen to what she has to say. Let her know that you want to read the paper and hear your favorite programs, but that you are also interested in her.

You probably found her vivacity one of her main attractions before you were married so naturally she thinks you still enjoy some lively conversation. And if she turned grumpy on you now and kept quiet all of the time, you would no doubt miss her talkativeness.

Try to get together on this problem by putting yourself in the other fellow's shoes.

LOUISA.

Canada's Census to Mark Changes In Agriculture

In the 1951 Census of Agriculture, which will be taken in June, enumerators will gather statistical data from farmers throughout Canada which will be used in measuring the changes that have occurred in Canadian agriculture since the last all-Canada census in 1941.

The data will also be used to establish a new base or "benchmark" for the annual estimates of field and forage crops published by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

As in the past, census enumerators will visit each individual farmer to assist in the completion of the census schedule. The Bureau will make provision for farmers to obtain advance copies of the schedule. This will enable farmers to fill in as much of the information as possible before the enumerator calls, thus saving the time of both farmers and enumerators.

Due mainly to the opening to settlement and later development of the prairie lands there has been a sharp increase in the acreage devoted to field crops in Canada in the past 50 years, according to census data and annual acreage estimates. The Census of 1901 placed the area under field crops at 19,800,000 acres. By 1941 the figure had risen to 55,800,000 acres, and in 1950 the estimated total was in the close neighborhood of 62,000,000 acres.

Acreage devoted to wheat showed the most significant gain in actual area, rising from 4,225,000 in 1900 to 21,950,000 in 1941, and an estimated total of 27,021,000 in 1950. Oats increased from 5,368,000 in 1900 to 12,276,000 in 1941, and 11,575,000 in 1950. Barley rose from 872,000 to 5,312,000 in 1941, and 6,625,000 in 1950, and rye from 177,000 to 929,000 in 1941, and 1,168,000 in 1950. The flaxseed advanced from 23,000 in 1900 to an estimated 1950 total of 547,000.

U of A Support Drive For Federal Aid to Education

Campaign for federal grants to Canadian universities is being supported by the University of Alberta, President Andrew Stewart said this week.

But even if the university is successful in getting a grant from the federal government it does not mean there will be a reduction in the new higher fees, he warned.

Tuition fees were recently boosted 20 per cent at U of A. Boost will give the university about $100,000 additional income, the president said.

The boost was made with reluctance, he added, but he could not promise a reduction in fees if a grant comes through.

Average student tuition at the university is about $180. "We're very interested in federal aid to education," Prof. Stewart said. "and we're supporting the national conference in its campaign for federal assistance." The University of Alberta is relatively well off in comparison to some universities, he said. Rising costs may make it necessary to keep the fee hikes in effect even if a grant comes through.

ENOUGH TREES NOT RECEIVED FOR SPRING PLANTING

A number of applications for trees have been received by Morinville Agricultural Service Board, but trees were not available for spring planting. Some misunderstanding existed over the number of trees available for 1951 planting. This will necessitate several farmers summerfallowing their land for a second year on account of the shortage of trees. G. R. Sterling advised the board that he would find out when the tree planter was available and how many trees would be available for the Legal project.

Present at the meeting held May 3 were John Schafers, H. E. Mirus, Walter Van De Walle, Walter Ellett and J. O. Patry.

Councillor Stanley Walker advised the board he would not be able to attend so John Schafers acted as chairman.

J. M. Fontaine, district agriculturist was unable to represent the Department of Agriculture so G. R. Sterling took his place.

VETERANS' LAND ACT

J. Edgar, Supervisor of the Veterans' Land Act, also attended the meeting.

H. E. Mirus inquired about the results of the petition that had been circulated regarding the establishment of a restricted area for the eradication of bovine tuberculosis for the municipality. Letters were read to the board regarding the petitions as filed with E. E. Ballantyne, D.V.M. director and dated March 5, 1951 and that the petitions as filed and that 94.62 per cent of the stock owners in the Municipality had signed the said petitions. The petitions have been filed with the respective departments in this regard and the testing no doubt will begin in due course.

The board were advised that these petitions were short of a small percentage and have not been as yet filed due to this fact. Moved by H. Mirus that the Field Supervisor contact key men in the townships where the pure bred sire petitions have not been circulated in order to have it completed as soon as possible.

NEGLECTED LAND

The farm on the S.W. quarter of 28-57-27-W4, which is west of Busby has been neglected in years past and was brought up for discussion by the board. J. Edgar, V.L.A. Supervisor spoke regarding the said parcel of land. He stated the contract had not been lived up to by not farming the land in a husband-like manner and also the owner not personally operating the land. H. E. Mirus spoke regarding the plots of grass seed put down on this farm and the lack of co-operation in doing what the service board advised. There was no fibre in the soil and erosion was in evidence.

The owner works on the railroad in the summertime and hires the farm work done. The weed inspector has difficulty in having G. Thompson controlling the weeds, which would be no problem if a proper crop rotation was established. There are 20 acres under "Notice to Prohibit Seeding" under the Noxious Weed Act. This 20 acres has been under notice since the fall of 1948. Considerable discussion was taken by the board on this matter, and the following resolution was proposed by Walter Van De Walle: "Whereas the above mentioned land is a menace to the district through being farmed in a careless and inefficient manner and is debilitated through weed infestation and wind and water erosion and

"Whereas the farmer will give no co-operation to the Municipal Weed Inspector or the officials of the Morinville Agricultural Service Board"

"Now therefore be it resolved that this matter be brought to the personal attention of the District Superintendent of the Veterans' Land Act asking his co-operation in the matter as to the farming methods being carried out on this farm and the help of rectifying the same, as the same cannot be placed under the supervision of the Service Board as other private land, as the Service Board have no protection under the Veterans' Land Act to recover any expenditures which they deem necessary to be made to rehabilitate the said lands."

Moved by H. Mirus and carried that the members of the Service Board approve of the said resolution and the secretary forward the same for the personal attention of the District Superintendent of the V.L.A.

The N.W. quarter 5 and N.E. quarter 6-57-27-W4 was now taken up by the board; the operator has appeared before the council regarding this matter last fall. The board after a long discussion on the matter believed the only solution to this matter was to place the land under control. Moved by W. Van De Walle that we recommend to the Municipal Council that these lands be placed under control of the Service Board under Section 15 of the "Agricultural Service Board Act." Carried.

SEEDING ROADSIDE

The board was advised that the machine will not be available to the Municipality for the seeding of roadsides to grass this year due to the fact that this seeder had more work than it could do on Government highways. The board were advised that a Gerber grass seeder could be purchased for ap-

Ratepayers of M.D. Sturgeon

A. WALTERS - Sec.-Treas.

To Resident Non-Ratepayers
Any resident non-ratepayer can enter into a contract with the Municipality for $1.00 per day general ward rate in any of the City Hospitals, or in the Immaculate Hospital, upon making application to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Municipality and paying contract fee of $7 in advance. A. WALTERS - Sec.-Treas.

proximately $60.00. The Service Board have seed sufficient to seed 20 miles of road on hand from last year and the reason this was not seeded was that the seeder was not available last fall in time to do the said work. Moved by J. Schafers that we recommend to the Municipal Council that they purchase a Gerber grass seeder for this purpose. Moved by J. Schafers that we have a seed drill survey throughout the Municipality in 1951; that the Field Supervisor be appointed to attend to this matter as soon as seeding begins.

Request for the furnishing of a certain amount of seed to be used on the N.W. 21-54-25-W4 for the plowing match of 1952 was now placed before the board. The board felt that as this was for the benefit of the farmer concerned by benefiting the land that they were not in favor of furnishing any seed for said plowing match.

BANGS' DISEASE

Moved by H. Mirus that we have the usual announcement published in the local paper, in the issues of May 11 and May 18 that all applications be received at the Municipal office until May 26, and arrangements be made by the Supervisor with a Veterinary to carry out this work as usual. Carried.

W. Van De Walle moved that we make provisions to hold two field days in the Municipality during 1951 and that the arranging for the same be left at the discretion of our field supervisor. Carried.

Moved by H. E. Mirus that we hold our next meeting on call.

Moved by J. Schafers that we adjourn this meeting at 6 p.m.
